Let me make this clear so that there will be no doubt. The messages were removed from public view because of the ad hominem nature of their content.<

Jim -

Prior to my quoted sentence, I had mentioned the repeated postings of David Stagner (about 7 of them) and Bob Artwohl which caused the same ground to be covered over and over on the Posner/Zoppi matter. When I said I thought the sysops agreed, I did not mean with the content of my points, but with the assessment that the factual positions had been put out and the exchange was now degenerating into a series of personal attacks and threats. -- David
